ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

Do you know how to get the most from your staff?

Do you motivate, engage and coach them whilst developing your own skill set?

This interactive workshop is aimed at owners, directors & senior managers. How can you get the best out of your team and ensure the future success of the business?

Main topics covered:

- Developing your own skill set
- Dealing with the key challenges of employing teams

Run by Gill Rouse and Andrew Wolfe (see right), this event will provide useful tips, processes and insights to move your farm attraction forward.

Prior to the event delegates will be contacted to ascertain the areas relating to staff that they find the most challenging. Each individual response will be kept confidential, however the common areas that emerge from these responses will be built into the content for the workshop.
