TACKLING HR ISSUES WORKSHOP

Odds Farm Park, Buckinghamshire HP10 0LX
Wednesday 19th June 2019, 9.30am – 3.30pm

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

This 1-day workshop on HR/Employment Law is designed to help managers and supervisors better understand the legal responsibilities of their role as employers. It is led by Caroline Hitchen from CN Employment Law. Topics covered during this interactive day include...

- Employment Law Basics
- Performance Management, Absence Management and the nitty gritty of Termination of Employment
- Equality, Family Rights, Recruitment, Contracts and....GDPR!

Presented in a fun, informative and participative way, with a Q and A at the end, the course is suitable for anyone who manages staff, and attendees will come away with a more in depth understanding of key topics and their responsibilities as managers.

ODDS FARM PARK

Odds Farm Park won the 2017 NFAN Large Farm Park of the Year Award and has won many other awards including the NFAN Best Food & Beverage Award 2019. Marmalade's Tea Room has won the prestigious "Silver" Award for the Café/Tea Room of the Year at the Beautiful South Awards. There will be time for a brief look around the farm park during the day.

ABOUT CAROLINE HITCHEN

Caroline has worked in employment law for over 30 years. With an honours degree in Business, specialising in employment, she worked in HR for Blue Chip companies for a number of years. She qualified as a solicitor at the end of 2013 and since then has run an employment law consultancy, advising business (including farm parks) and individuals on all aspects of employment law, from day to day advice up to tribunal representation. She regularly trains clients on the subject and is currently writing her third employment law book.
